Thy love, dear Lord, will never leave me friendless;
I clasp Thy gracious hand held out to mine,
And know its steadying power will hold me,
Through deepening darkness or the radiant shine
Of golden sunlight on my earthly pathway.

O, blessed Lord of Life, I know
Whatever be the future that befalls me,
Thy circling arms will never let me go.
O, Love, that understands my human frailties
I lean my weakness on Thy towering strength.

I know that with Thee, I can safely travel
The roughest road, no matter what its length.
I cannot go without Thy hand to guide me;
For vistas open--hitherto unknown.
Be with me, as a comrade and companion.
For with thee, Lord, I need not walk alone.
